Purpose

To discuss the health implications of the EPA's actions on air policy.

Background

In the past, the American Lung Association has collaborated with various health groups to support many EPA actions. These include the Clean Power Plan, the Light-Duty Vehicle MTE, and the most recent ozone and PM NAAQS, methane and mercury regulations, NSPS for electric generating units and new residential wood heaters, and Tier 3 motor vehicle standards. Accordingly, this group has submitted a comment to the regulatory reform docket supporting all of these regulations as they exist currently
